ORDER

Upon review of the National Labor Relations Board's (the "Board") Renewed Application for an Order Adjudicating Lori Irish in Civil Contempt and for Other Civil Relief ("Renewed Application"), it is hereby

ORDERED that the Board's Renewed Application is GRANTED; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that Lori Irish, having failed to comply with this Court's March 11, 2013 Order [Doc. 105] and Fed.R.Civ.P. 45 without justification and/or good cause, is hereby adjudicated in CIVIL CONTEMPT; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that Lori Irish's Motion to Declare Colby Trust as Owner of Items in Safety Deposit Box [Doc. 92] is DENIED with prejudice; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the Board's Motion for Order Directing U.S. Marshals Service ("USMS") to Dispose of Contents of Safe Deposit Boxes and to Remit Proceeds to the Board [Doc. 79] is GRANTED in its entirety; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that the USMS shall, within fourteen (14) days of the date of this Order, commence proceedings to dispose of the contents of the safe deposit boxes seized pursuant to this Court's August 25, 2009 Order and in accordance with law; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that any monetary proceeds of the aforementioned disposition, after the payment of customary and reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the USMS in connection with such disposition, be promptly remitted to the Board, for further disposition by the Board, consistent with standard Board practice and procedures.
